INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Carmichael Outreach Inc.

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Carmichael Outreach Inc. (the organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at June 30, 2022, and the statements of revenues and expenses, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the organization as at June 30, 2022, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNPO).

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many charitable organizations, the organization derives revenue from cash donations and fundraising, the completeness of which is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the organization and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions, excess of revenues over expenses, current assets and net assets. The predecessor auditor's opinion on the financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2021 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of this limitation of scope.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the organization in accordance with ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Other Matter

The financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2021 were audited by another auditor who expressed a qualified opinion on those financial statements on September 28, 2021 for the reasons described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with ASNPO, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

(continues)

Independent Auditor's Report to the Board of Directors of Carmichael Outreach Inc. (continued)

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION

Carmichael Outreach Inc. (the "organization") is a not-for-profit organization of Saskatchewan. As a registered charity the organization is exempt from the payment of income tax under Subsection 149(1) of the Income Tax Act.

The organization operates to provide facilities, recreation, social activities, education, clothing, food, household goods and other necessities to people in need in the City of Regina and surrounding area.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation

The financial statements were prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNPO).

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include balances with banks and short-term investments with maturities of three months or less. Cash subject to restrictions that prevent its use for current purposes is included in restricted cash.

Contributed goods and services

The organization recognizes donated goods and services when the fair values of such items are known or can be reasonably determined and they are used in the normal course of the organization's operations and would otherwise have been purchased.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period.

Accounts receivable are stated after evaluation as to their collectability and an appropriate allowance for doubtful accounts is provided where considered necessary. Amortization is based on the estimated useful lives of capital assets.

Such estimates are periodically reviewed and any adjustments necessary are reported in earnings in the period in which they become known. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can reasonably be estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Fundraising revenue is recognized when received.

Donations and grants received that are capital in nature are deferred and recognized over the useful life of the related contributed asset.

Capital assets

Capital assets are stated at cost or deemed cost less accumulated amortization and are amortized over their estimated useful lives on a declining balance basis at the following rates:

Buildings	4%
Automotive	30%
Computer equipment	45%
Equipment	20%
Signage	20%

The cost for contributed capital assets is considered to be the fair value at the date of contribution.

The organization performs impairment testing on capital assets held for use whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of the asset, may not be recoverable. Impairment losses are recognized when the undiscounted future cash flows from its use and disposal are less than the asset's carrying amount. Impairment is measured as the amount by which the asset's carrying value exceeds its fair value. Any impairment is included in excess of revenues over expenses for the year.

Financial instruments

The Organization recognizes its financial instruments when the Organization becomes party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. All financial instruments are initially recorded at their fair value, including financial assets and liabilities originated and issued in a related party transaction with management.

All financial instruments are subsequently measured at cost or amortized cost.

Transaction costs and financing fees are added to the carrying amount for those financial instruments subsequently measured at amortized cost or cost.

Financial asset impairment

The organization assesses impairment of all of its financial assets measured at cost or amortized cost. When there is an indication of impairment, the organization determines whether it has resulted in a significant adverse change in the expected timing or amount of future cash flows during the year. If so, the organization reduces the carrying amount of any impaired financial assets to the highest of: the present value of cash flows expected to be generated by holding the assets; the amount that could be realized by selling the assets; and the amount expected to be realized by exercising any rights to collateral held against those assets. Any impairment, which is not considered temporary, is included in current year excess of revenue over expenses.

The organization reverses impairment losses on financial assets when there is a decrease in impairment and the decrease can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The amount of the reversal is recognized in the excess of revenue over expenses in the year the reversal occurs.

Government assistance

The organization recognizes government assistance when there is a reasonable assurance that it will comply with the conditions required to qualify for the assistance, and that the assistance will be received. Government assistance toward current expenses is recognized in income for the period as other income.

3. TERM DEPOSITS

Term deposits mature in June 2023 and bear interest at 2.70%.

4. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable are comprised of the following:

	2022	2021
Trade receivables	$ 35,377	$ 12,288
Forgivable portion of CEBA loan	10,000	10,000
	$ 45,377	$ 22,288

5. BANK INDEBTEDNESS

13. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The organization as part of its operations, carries a number of financial instruments. It is management's opinion that the organization is not exposed to significant interest, currency, credit, liquidity or other price risks arising from these financial instruments except as otherwise disclosed.

Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the potential that a counter party will fail to perform its obligations. The organization is exposed to credit risk from customers. At June 30, 2022, three customers (2021 - three customers) accounted for 96.4% (2021 - 100%) of the trade receivables. The organization believes there is no unusual exposure associated with the collection of these receivables. The organization performs regular credit assessments of its customers and provides for potentially uncollectable accounts receivable.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The organization enters into transactions to purchase goods and services on credit and borrow funds from financial institutions or other creditors, for which repayment is required at various maturity dates.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument might be adversely affected by a change in the interest rates. In seeking to minimize the risks from interest rate fluctuations, the organization manages exposure through its normal operating and financing activities. The organization is exposed to interest rate risk primarily with respect to its mortgage for $982,136 obtained through Conexus Credit Union. The mortgage has a variable interest rate of 4.884%.

Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the organization is not exposed to significant other price risks arising from these financial instruments.

14. COMPARATIVE FIGURES

Some of the comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation.

15. RESTATED COMPARATIVE FIGURES

During our audit of the 2022 financial statements, it was determined that the prior period's financial records contained errors that required restatement. The restatement was necessary to record deferred revenue for a grant which was previously recognized in revenue in the fiscal period ended June 30, 2020. The conditions for this grant were not met until the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022. As well, in previous years after the purchase of the current property, a portion of the cost of the building purchased was not allocated to land. The new allocation to land resulted in an overall decrease in accumulated amortization. The changes resulting from these restatements are outlined in the table below. The prior year financial statements have not been re-issued:

	Previously reported	Change	Restated amount
Deferred revenue	$ 80,542	$ 25,460	$ 106,002
Capital assets	1,753,377	37,918	1,791,295
Capital Assets Fund	165,219	37,918	203,137
Unrestricted Net Assets	281,763	(25,460)	256,303
Amortization expense	89,869	(7,844)	82,025
Excess of revenue over expenses	95,152	7,844	102,996
	$ 2,465,922	$ 75,836	$ 2,541,758

16. COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The COVID-19 pandemic is complex and rapidly evolving. It has caused material disruption to businesses and has resulted in an economic slowdown. The organization continues to assess and monitor the impact of COVID-19 on its financial condition. The organization's operations were impacted by COVID-19 due to reduction of operations, increased customer demand in industry, additional protection materials purchased in the year, cancellation of events, and other cost management strategies. Management has seen no change in this assessment as of June 30, 2022.
